ABLE MEN Will Represent Kentucky at the Supreme Council Convention. Messrs. Michael Reichert and Joseph P. McGinn represent the Kentucky branches of the Catholic Knights of America as delegates to the Supreme Council of that order which will meet, in St. Louis, May 1. W. C. Smith, of Louisville, one of the Supreme Trustees, will also attend the meeting of the	RETIRE FROM BUSINESS. William Higgins, the well known leather dealer and shoe manufacturer, has retired from business and will in the near future retire to his farm near Bardstown. Mr. Higgins is one of the best known Irish-Americans in the city and carries with him in his retirement from a business career the best wishes of the entire community. HANDSOME RECEIPTS. The good Franciscan Sisters of New Albany and the Ladies' Sewing Circle of St. Edward's Hospital feel grateful to	TWO DEGREES Given Several Members of the A. O. H. Wednesday Night. The mission at St. Louis Bertrand's church cut a big figure in the falling off of the attendance at the meeting of Division 4, Ancient Order of Hibernians, last Wednesday night, and yet a goodly number of Hibernians were present. President Hennessy presided and John J. Barry acted as Recording Secretary in the absence of Tom Callahan. Edward Nash was elected to membership. The Visiting Committee reported that John O'Leary and John Mangan had recovered from recent illness. Messrs. Tom Callahan, John Connors, Tom Divenay, James Naughton and Ed Dalton were reported ill. The following members were given two degrees in the work of initiation: John Caveney, Edward Nash, Pat Filbush, of Division 4; and Ebenezer Morgan, Mike Relihan, David Owens and John Callahan. The following degree team officiated: John J. Barry, Patrician; Joseph P. McGinn, Bard; Will Meehan, Oracle.
WILL THEY RETURN LIKE THIS? Supreme Council. Not only Louisville but all Kentucky has reason to be proud of these gentlemen, who represent the Catholics of the city and State in such a noble order. The Catholic Knights of America is purely an insurance association, whose members must be practical Catholics. Messrs. Reichert, McGinn, and Smith are gentlemen who are able to grace any position in the gift of the order and their voices will be heard in its councils. In this issue we publish a picture of Messrs. Reichert and McGinn as they will leave Louisville in their special car for St. Louis. The story of their return will also be told in these columns.	HOPKINS' THEATER. Manager Hopkins of the Temple Theater promises another good vaudeville bill next week. Among the artists will be Johnstone Bennett, known to fame as "Vandeville's Premier Comedienne;" Carroll Johnson, the Beau Brummel of minstrelsy; James H. Cullen, "The Party from the West;" Raymond and Vack, German comedians, and other big features. BUCKINGHAM. Fred Irwin's New Majesties will be the next attraction at the Buckingham Theater. As a curtain raiser, a funny farce entitled "Back to Ireland" will be given, with "King For a Day," an extravagant burlesque, as the closing feature. In the olio will be Clio, McCule and Ordon; Daly, Tafe and Ronan; Gerlie DeMilt, May Deletta, Billy Watson, Ziska and King, Valmore, Horton and Marie Barrison. The usual matinees will be given. A paroxysm of coughing may often be arrested by taking a teaspoonful of glycerine in a little hot milk.	JEFFERSONVILLE C. K. OF A. An open meeting of Branch 54, Catholic Knights of America, will be held in Jeffersonville on May 20. Hon. Barney Coll will preside and addresses will be made by Jonathan Thickstun, State President of the order in Indiana, Police Commissioner John A. Murphy and others. Visitors are expected from Louisville, New Albany and other points. An enjoyable evening is promised. NARROW ESCAPE. Mrs. Isaac F. Whitesides, wife of the popular ex-Mayor of Jeffersonville, had a narrow escape from serious injury Monday. While out riding in her carriage one of the wheels came off at Front and Spring streets, but fortunately the driver controlled the horse until Mrs. Whitesides sprang from the vehicle. As she is one of Jeffersonville's best known ladies the first rumors caused much uneasiness among her wide circle of friends.
